U.S. HIGHWAY 66 LOOKING EAST
TUCUMCARI, NEW MEXICO

Although Tucumcari was born with the railroad in 1901, Tucumcari Lake was the watering place for prehistoric animals and evidence is found that cavemen, Spanish Conquistadors, pioneers, outlaws, along with the trail riders of the Goodnight, Chisholm, and Comanchero trails which crossed here. Tucumcari is the center of the oldest civilization and culture in America, where super highways now rush, prehistoric man once hunted.
